

Android V-6 Setup for "eduroam"

1. Go to Settings > Select WLAN

| | | () 81%) | 10:36 | |
|---------------------|----------------|---------|-------|--|
| Settir | ngs | | Q | |
| Wireless & networks | | | | |
| - | WLAN | | | |
| * | Bluetooth | | | |
| | SIM management | | | |
| 0 | Data usage | | | |
| ••• | More | | | |
| Device | | | | |
| | Display | | | |

2. Select eduroam

3. Select - PEAP in EAP method None in Phase-2 Authentication (unspecified) in CA Certificate

Enter your Username and Password. Eg. Username : suman@tifrh.res.in click on "Connect"

| × !1] 2 🛋 | | () 46% 16: | (16:17) | |
|------------|---------------------------------|-------------------|---------|--|
| * | eduroam | | | |
| C | 802.1x EAP | | | |
| | | | | |
| | Password | | | |
| | | | | |
| • | Show password | | | |
| | Advanced options | ^ | | |
| | EAP method PEAP | - | | |
| | Phase-2 authentication None | - | | |
| | CA certificate (unspecified) | - | | |
| | Anonymous identity | | | |
| | CANCEL | CONNECT | | |

4. Then it gets connected to eduroam.

